

University of Florida

Recognition Ceremony

for the

Duke University Talent Identification Program presented by

Center for Precollegiate Education and Training

at the

Stephen C. O'Connell Center

May 14, 2009

10:00 AM—12:00 PM    Sign-in and Campus Tours

1:05 PM    Introductions and Program Information:

Ms. Sara Day

Program Assistant

Center for Precollegiate Education and Training

1:15 PM    Science Presentation:    Physics is Fun!

Mr. John Mocko

Senior Teaching Laboratory Specialist

Physics Department

College of Liberal Arts and Sciences

2:10 PM    University Welcome:

Dr. Mary Jo Koroly

Director, Center for Precollegiate Education and Training

Associate Scientist

Biochemistry and Molecular Biology

College of Medicine

Dr. Bernard Mair

Associate Provost

Undergraduate Academic Affairs

2:20 PM    Recognition Ceremony:

Ms. Julie Piccirilli, Duke University Liaison

4:00 PM    Refreshments

The UF Center for Precollegiate Education and Training (UF-CPET) is a university-wide organization dedicated to fostering educational enrichment and forging research and Florida school partnerships by identifying, coordinating, extending or creating outreach programs that link secondary school teachers and students with UF in science, mathematics and technology. You can find more information about our programs at www.cpet.ufl.edu