

University of Florida Dual Credit Enrollment Application

UF's Dual Credit Enrollment (DCE) program provides the opportunity for qualified high school students to enroll in undergraduate college courses while simultaneously enrolled in a Florida public, or private school. Students receive both high school and college credit for these courses. To be eligible for DCE, students must attend a high school that has an Articulation Agreement with the University of Florida and must meet the specified eligibility criteria. DCE students are exempt from undergraduate tuition, matriculation, and laboratory fees.
