Group Summary Form: All groups should submit a Group Summary Form which is available from <https://www.cpet.ufl.edu/students/junior-science-and-humanities-symposium/> in Excel Format.

Group Rooming List: Groups may submit a Rooming List Request by January 13, 2023. Please note that students are to be housed in quad occupancy rooms unless students opted to pay for a triple or double occupancy room. Rooming lists must place as many students as possible in groupings of four students. Students from other schools may be assigned to unfilled rooms to maximize available hotel space.

Payment, Refund, and Substitution Policies:

1. Make all checks payable to: University of Florida. Credit cards and cash are not accepted. Personal checks should have the student's name written on the memo line.
2. All reservations for the JSJS must be accompanied by full payment or purchase order for the group from the participating school, unless other arrangements have been made.
3. All groups attending should submit a Group Summary Form which will indicate the persons being registered and how payment is being received.
4. Either individual or pooled group payments are acceptable. Registration deadline is January 13, 2023. Please contact the CPET office if there will be any difficulty meeting this deadline.
5. No refunds will be allowed after January 13, 2023. Requests for substitutions must be approved by Symposium staff and may incur additional fees.
6. Group Rooming List Requests are due January 13, 2023. If a rooming list is not provided, the group will accept Symposium rooming assignments.

School Permission and Chaperone Confirmation: The students and teachers listed on the Group Summary List are released from class as necessary to participate in the events of the 60th Florida Regional Junior Science and Humanities Symposium at the University of Florida, Gainesville on January 29-31, 2023.

We understand that it is the responsibility of the adult sponsor(s) to monitor the conduct of the students in his/her group. In the event that a participant does not abide by the rules of conduct established by the JSJS and/or his/her school, that participant may be asked to leave the JSJS immediately at the expense of his/her parent or guardian.
